

Wall Street Journal

Dorothy J. Gaiter & John Brecher

December 01, 2006

Scharffenberger Cellars Brut Excellence Non Vintage

Very Good, Best of T

"Most notable was our old friend Scharffenberger, which was the clear best of tasting, with interesting layers of taste, some complexity and an intricate melding of bubbles and wine...Best of tasting. Classy, with true, clean tastes of minerals, toast and ripe grapefruit. Nutty, with a slightly buttery finish that's quite luscious and lasts."